SALEM

The paving of the Salem-Canfield road has been nearly completed to Hope cemetery gates and the cement will be dry in two weeks. The road will be open for traffic by May 20.

Barefooted boys have made their appearance.

John Auld & Sons have been awarded the contract to improve the Pennsylvania railroad crossings at Main, Dry and New Garden streets.

A. M. Carr got a piece of steel in one of his eyes while working on his farm near Millville and went to Pittsburgh to have it removed.

A lot of people thought Tuesday was clean-up day and many cans of refuse were set out to be carted away by the city. No clean-up day named as yet.

A big drive has started to raise funds for the Red Cross. As usual, W. H. Mullins and wife are leading the way.

Mrs. Percy Tetlow is threatened with pneumonia.

Excellent work is being done in the night school which is well attended.

Salem went away over the top in the sale of liberty bonds, and the end is not yet.

Thieves Saturday night stole W. D.
Hoopes' new Ford, Gilbert Edgerton's new bicycle and robbed the residence of Ernest Schmidt of clothing, $20 in money and two watches.

J. A. Coburn, who died in Greenfield Saturday night at the age of 63, spent most of his life in this county where he was born. Odd Fellows had charge of the funeral Wednesday afternoon. Burial in Grandview cemetery.

Dr. McGeorge left Sunday for Ann Arbor, Mich., to enter surgical military service.

The Shop League base ball season opened last Sunday when the pottery team defeated the nail mill nine 4 to 3.

Miss Ella Krois, riding on a motorcycle with a friend Sunday evening, had two ribs broken and was otherwise injured when Wm. Vonemann's automobile struck the cycle at a street intersection.

Mrs. Anna Fouts died Saturday night, aged 47.

This city has been called upon to furnish many more young men for war service which begins May 25.

Richard Gardner has resigned as police captain and it is likely no successor will be appointed.

Mike Verbancine, a foreigner, attempted to assault Helen Zelena, aged six. Her cries brought help and the man fled.

A considerable fund is being subscribed for the Community House operated by the Red Cross.

Miss Clara Callahan, daughter of Bryan Callahan, and Frank Keeselmire went to Lisbon last week and were married.

Misses Mary Bustard and Esther White of this city graduated last week from Lakeside hospital in Cleveland after a long illness.

The Red Cross campaign opening parade last Friday night was great and thousands of patriotic citizens witnessed it.

Mrs. A. W. Coates was painfully injured Friday night when the auto her husband was driving, turned to miss another machine, struck an electric light pole and shattered the windshield which cut her face and head.

NORTH JACKSON

Local Red Cross auxiliary will meet at the residence of F. Eckenrode next Wednesday for all day sewing. The directors of sewing, Mrs. Fred Gault and Mrs. Lucy Snyder, request a full attendance.

THE PROVIDENTIAL WAY

Every day is "Mother's Day."
So let us not forget
"The her that sings the merry lay And rocks the cradle yet."
She is the center of the home, Akin she is to love,
The fruitfulness of life to come Through Providence above.
Although she patiently doth bear
The cross of humankind, It is a holiness to share And never be unkind.

For light divine will penetrate,
The gloom shall pass away,
The world someday will compensate And bless her night and day.
—S. J. Bush, Greenford.

It's not only convenient but it's economy, with coal at its present price, to do your ironing electrically with

Good for the Whole Family Every family requires a safe and reliable, tough and cold remedy. Mrs.
John Potter, 20 Shupe St., Mt. Pleasant, Pa. writes: "I have used Foley's Honey and Tar for colds for years and highly recommend it to all families." Contains no opiates. Checks bronchial and grip cough, croup and whooping cough. F. A. Morris, adv.

Washingtonville

"Of again, on again"—that's the way with overcoats this spring.
They say that a man is mighty, He governs land and sea;
He wields a mighty scepter O'er lesser powers that be But a mighty power or stronger Man from his throne has hurled For the hand that rocks the cradle Is the hand that rules the world.
—William Ross Wallace.

The annual commencement of the Washingtonville high school was held in the school auditorium last Thursday evening. The class was composed of two girls and four boys—Fern Atkinson, Stella Dalrymple, Curtis Grindie, James Fynes, William Grim and Donald Spear. The two girls and James Fynes gave the audience some very good orations. The other members delivered their orations at a literary held on Friday for the class. The class address given by B. F. Stanton, principal of the Alliance schools, was highly appreciated. Supt. J. L. Gray presented the diploma. The stage was tastefully decorated with W. S. colors and flowers. Class motto—Over the Top. Class emblem—U. S. Flag.
Columbian orchestra furnished excellent music for the occasion. The evening was well spent and many good things said by Mr. Stanton should not be forgotten.

May flowers are in full bloom.
Little boys about town are wondering if clean up week means the back of their necks.

The stores here have had a big rush for straw hats this week.

Early gardeners here are enjoying home grown lettuce.

Pupils neither absent nor tardy at school during the past year were Edna, Fynes, Stuart McIntosh, Louis Stouffer, Frank Stouffer, Little Ada Falcon was absent one-half day only on account of sickness. This was Ada's first absence in her three years school attendance. The school closed with a Red Cross membership of 174.

Only 13 pupils have not been enrolled.
Membership dues to the amount of $43.50 have been sent to the Lisbon chapter. Perhaps some way can yet be found to have a complete enrollment so that the school may be properly organized. Until that is done they are somewhat handicapped. Miss Gard and Harmon went to Lisbon Tuesday in the interest of the school and they expect to issue a call for pupils to come to the school building to take up Junior Red Cross work.
Notice of this prospective meeting will be duly given.

School girls and boys justly felt proud last week. They reported the following sales: Thrift and War Savings Stamps $482; Liberty Bonds, $150.

A little son, born to Mr. and Mrs.
Charlie Senior Friday last, has been named Lester Merle.

John Fynes of Youngstown has been here at the home of his parents this week.

Ralph Warner and Miss Frieda Paley were guests of Mr. and Mrs. James King at their home in Salem last Sunday.

The trees have begun the wearing of the green.

Mrs. A. Crawford of Leetonia was a Sunday visitor at the home of Mrs.
Sara Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Smedley accompanied Mr. and Mrs. George Dann of Salem on a motor trip to the home of their daughter in Rochester, Pa., Sunday.

Word was received by Rev. Richardson that Dr. Huber of Springfield would be here during the week end.

Miss Rhoda Bossert of Alliance and Carl Bossert of Millersburg spent the week end here with their parents.

Mrs. Nancy Boston of Alliance was an over Sunday visitor at the home of Mrs. Lydia Boston.

John E. Holt of Hamilton, Canada, and Mrs. Thomas Lancaster of Wheeling, W. Va., had a pleasant visit at the home of his uncle, Wm. Holt.

F. G. Davis and wife, Mrs. J. C.
Weikart and daughter Clara, were Albany visitors Sunday.

Don't forget the monthly business meeting of the Christian Endeavor to be held at the home of Miss Clara Weikart Friday evening. Members and friends are cordially invited to be present at this social gathering.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Foust of East Liverpool visited at the home of Mrs.
Elizabeth Burton Friday. They were on their way home from the Cleveland hospital where Mr. Foust was confined for three weeks.

Joseph Stamp and family and James Reynolds and family of Alliance were Sunday visitors at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Richardson.

Mrs. David Kline of Youngstown spent the past week at the home of her sister, Mrs. George McDonald.

John S. Davis has bought the Bos-ser and Culler confectionery store and took possession Saturday. He will move into the residence next week.

Harry Minner, who made his home with his sister in New Castle all winter, has returned to the old home here and expects to stay this summer.

Harry Culler and wife will occupy the John Davis property on Union street.

Mrs. Isaac Esterly and Mrs. W. T.
Holloway of Columbiana were guests of Mrs. Wm. Weikart, Tuesday.

Mrs. Harrold (nee Weie Davis) of Columbiana has been here at the home of her mother during the past week.
Her husband, who is employed by the government, is now stationed at Washington, D. C. Mrs. Davis will soon leave for that city where they will make their home.

Simon Paley returned home to Pittsburg, Kan., last Friday after an extended visit here with relatives and friends.

P. F. Stouffer, George Firth and Fred Weikart spent several days this week with the boys at Camp Sherman. One of the features of the trip was witnessing one of the largest parades ever held at the Camp. The boys were all very busy, working much overtime and didn't have much chance to entertain their visitors but the short time they had with them was much enjoyed.

Miss Anna Brady has returned from a visit with her sister in Pittsburgh, Pa.

Village council meeting was held in the mayor's office Tuesday evening.
Mrs. Clifford Bare and son of Salem spent Sunday here at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Warner.

Curtis Grindie, a member of this year's graduating class, has secured employment in Salem, commencing work Monday.

Fetes' day will be observed at the Lutheran church on Sunday, this being the day for regular preaching service. The pastor urges a good attendance at these meetings.

Miss Helen Hendricks was taken ill Thursday with appendicitis. She was taken to the Salem hospital Sunday and operated on Tuesday. Her young friends here regret to hear of her illness.

Maggie Queen, who has been seriously ill, is a little improved.

Misses Janet Maxwell and Frieda Paisley are enjoying several days' vacation with relatives and friends in Mansfield.

Mrs. Mabel Ballantine of Leetonia is ill with diphtheria at the home of her brother Frank. The home is quar-antined.

Glenn Davis, while at his work at the Crescent Machine Co. in Leetonia, stepped on the point of an oil can, running a piece of leather from the sole of his shoe into his foot which required surgical aid for its removal.
Mr. Davis was off duty for several days.

A crowd from here attended the high school play in Leetonia last Friday evening.

The drama, Uncle Tom's Cabin, was presented in town hall Wednesday evening.

Are you thinking? Keep at it, and the thought uppermost in your mind should be the week of May 20 when the Red Cross drive will be here.

There will be an entertainment held in the school auditorium on the evening of Tuesday, May 21, and we would like to meet you there and hear this important branch of war work thoroughly explained. Keep a watch of the different posters in conspicuous places about the town and be ready when the week of the drive comes to help in this grand work. The boys are over there now and hard at it and we must give them all the assistance we possibly can to help them "Over the top." Think it over, talk it over with your neighbors and associates, offer any suggestions you may have.
Visit the Red Cross rooms in the Atkinson building and get acquainted with the band of loyal ones who keep the kettle boiling. Then when your turn comes in the drive be ready to do your bit to help make this world a decent place in which to live. It is not expected that we all must go across, but we can all come across, and we must do one or the other.

So here's to the Sammies over in France.

They're after the Hun and will make him dance;

They will knock the barbarism out of his noodle

And make him sing civilization to the tune of Yankee Doodle.

And the Red Cross backs him up with your help.

hopper sparrow May 4; the house wren, the golden crowned acceator and the vibrant white crowned sparrow on May 6.

Proper Food for Weak Stomachs
The proper food for one man may be all wrong for another. Every one should adopt a diet suited to his age and occupation. Those who have weak stomachs need to be especially careful and should eat slowly and masticate their food thoroughly. It is also important that they keep their bowels regular. When they become constipated or when they feel dull and stupid after eating, they should take Chamberlain's Tablets to strengthen the stomach and move the bowels.
They are easy to take and pleasant in effect.—adv.

Usually when you discover that the machine will not do the work for which it was intended, it is after you have spent your money for it! Not so with the "Hoover." We prove by actual demonstration that it will do all and more than any other sweeper before you pay a penny. Get yours from The Canfield Gas & Electric Co.

As a general thing, after the last girl in the family has married and moved away mother begins using the brush for her own hair.

Robbing Peter to pay Paul is bad enough, but robbing papa to play pool is fierce.

Our observation is that nobody spends any time in giving a widow advice about matrimony.

You never can tell. Many a fellow has been disappointed in love because he thought the girl had money.

Married couples should agree, but many a man agrees with his wife much more than she agrees with him.
